SERVICE

This Evening

6.00pm

Carols, readings and anthems

to end the Christmas Season

Palms Please can you return palms so that they can be burned in preparation for Ash Wednesday. A basket will be available at the back of church for the palms.

Waterlooville Music Festival Tickets for Waterlooville Music Festival 2018 go on general sale this Thursday, 1st February. Tickets for some concerts could then sell out very quickly – so to make sure no-one from St George's misses out, we are opening the Music Festival box office today, in the hall after the 10am Eucharist. Last Night of the Proms £10, and an Early-bird 10% discount for other evenings bringing the advance ticket price down to £5.40. Best value are the Gold Passport (covers everything - £28) or Standard Passport (everything except the Last Night - £20). There is a leaflet and poster at back of church with programme details, or visit the website for more comprehensive information – www.waterloovillemusicfestival.org.uk The Church box office will also be open next Sunday morning after the 10am Eucharist. All credit cards accepted, including Apple Pay, Android Pay and Samsung Pay.

St. George's Magazine We are now preparing the next issue of St George's News, which will be for Lent and Easter 2018. We need contributors! Please can you consider writing an article for publication – perhaps about a Church Group or a Charity that your are involved with, or an interesting holiday, or a hobby, or any other subject! Or if you have taken a photograph of some church event that we can publish, please forward it – all contributions to:

feedback@stgeorgesnews.org or leave in the pigeon hole at back of church for John Johnson Thank you.

Next Pop-Up-Cinema
