The Liturgical gifts today are given by Malcom Brewer in loving memory of Janet Brewer whose anniversary fell on the 29th January.

Training Sessions lasting around 45 minutes for new Servers will take place in Church at 12:00 on Sundays 8th and 15th February. If you haven't already given them your names, please let Dawn Trimby, Anne Morgan or Fr Charles know if you are interested.

Lord, teach me to be generous.
 Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
 to give and not to count the cost,
 to fight and not to heed the wounds,
 to toil and not to seek for rest,
 to labour and not to ask for reward,
 save that of knowing that I do your will.
 Amen. St Ignatius of Loyola

Thank you very much for the gifts given and offered for the ongoing church maintenance and recent plumbing repairs - what has been pledged so far is very much appreciate

Lent lunches will be going ahead again next month (from February 25th). Keep an eye out for a list of those prepared to make soup and add your name please.

We are going to run an Auction of Promises (date to be determined soon) if you have a skill you could contribute or a promise you would like to make please speak to Sarah (Churchwarden) or Jane Cook or anyone else you know on the Social and Fundraising Committee. (Examples of skills - offer an hour's cleaning or gardening or a lesson in cake baking or learning to crochet. Examples of promises - make Sunday lunch for 4, make a cream tea for 4 or donate a trip on a boat.)

Sunday February 8th a meeting with anyone interested in this year's flower show after the 10am service in church.

As we now approach the end of the Christmas season, may I thank everyone who kindly contributed to the Christmas Flower Fund. It makes such a difference to have real flowers. Special thanks to Dawn, Sheila and Sue for their invaluable help in creating the displays at Christmas. Lynn Winter
